GATCHEL & MANNING PHILA

Miss Clipper's Anecdotes, Personalities and Comments, CONCERNING STAGE FOLK and Sometimes OTHERS

BY JOSEPHINE GRO.

Lillian Russell, who, under the Shubert management, is to star in a musical setting of "School for Scandal," under the title of "Lady Teazle," might have filled ten companies, had she so chosen, for, when the announcement of the production was made, she was immediately besieged by scores among her profession who were anxious to support her in her new musical play. A few even who have never had any stage experience are more than willing to cast their lot with the beautiful singer. Among this myriad of would-be supporters there was one who, after making strenuous, though vain, efforts to gain an audience with the fair queen of American opera, sought an introduction to one of her relatives, hoping thereby to finally realize his fondest hope—a part in Miss Russell's company.

"I understand you are related to Miss Russell," said the aspirant, a young man, whose accent and general make up proclaimed him to be recently from the far West. "Well, I've acted and sung some in our little home shows, and our folks all say that I'm cut out for an actor. I was thinking as you're a relative of Miss Russell you might have a little pull with her and get me into her show."

"What sort of parts can you play?" replied Miss Russell's sister, highly amused at the applicant's manner.

"Well, I s'pose I could at first play some small part. I saw a play once, a long time ago, and, if I remember right, there was a lot of fellows that stood around at the party and drank tea. Now, couldn't you use your influence to get me one of them 'Sir' parts? I'd be perfectly willing to start in one of them little ordinary 'Sir' parts." And the young aspirant went on eagerly when told that all the "Sir" parts had been given out.

Frank Keenan has been rehearsing Margaret Anglin's new play, which, in environment and personnel, is Greek. One afternoon, at rehearsal, Keenan's attention was attracted to the peculiar stare of a certain young "Greek," who should have had upon his face an expression of warm adoration, which the scene demanded. Instead, however, he was stonily staring, with an expressionless countenance, in a direction several inches above the head of the beautiful damsel upon whom he should be showering passionate glances.

"Look here, young man," said Keenan, "don't you realize the meaning of this scene?"

"Certainly," was the reply, "and I'm trying to impersonate my part in true classic manner. All the Grecian statuary that I've ever seen have the Grecian stare that I've got down pretty fine, for I've cultivated it before the mirror ever since I got the part." "Well, if you're going to keep the part," said Keenan dryly, "you'll have to uncultivate that classic Grecian stare of yours and get a real live expression on your face—you're not a piece of Greek statuary in this play, you know, in this you're a live lover."

"Me, Him and I" is one of Willard Holcomb's biggest "screamers." Hurtig & Seamon are the producers, while comedians Bickel, Watson and Wroth each play, respectively, the Dutch, tramp and Irish parts. Max Hoffman has put into the little farce some of his most excellent musical numbers, which are capably rendered by the trio of fun makers.

The advance man, H. A. D'Arcy, attended one of the last rehearsals in order to get good advertising points from the play with which to exploit it. He laughed with the others at all the comedy points which came, volley after volley, until the very end, then, in summing up what he was to give out for advertising, realized all at once that the play, though excitingly carrying the auditor along throughout its duration, positively had no plot.

"Look here, Willard," he exclaimed to the author, "what am I to say about your farce—it has no plot, and you can't exploit a play without a plot."

"Well, well, that's so, now you speak of it," said Holcomb. "I didn't realize that fact until you just called my attention to it. We'll have to have a plot, surely—I'll have it ready for you in two minutes." And at the expiration of that time Holcomb handed over to D'Arcy the plot of the farce, written after the play was within a few hours of a production, which goes to show, as has since been proved by the big hit of the piece, that a real plot these latter days is not absolutely necessary to success.

Sam M. Dawson, business manager of the Monumental Theatre, Baltimore, relates a case of monumental assurance, commonly known as "gall," on the part of a well dressed, well appearing young man, who approached the box office window the other evening.

"Is Miss ——— in the company that's playing here?" he asked of Joseph Kernan, the treasurer. On being informed in the affirmative, he then said:

"I'd like an envelope and a sheet of paper, please," at which request the obliging treasurer handed out the desired stationery, with the idea that the applicant for it perhaps had an important message to send to the actress. After writing a few words, he sealed and addressed the envelope, and handing it to Kernan, said:

"Take that back on the stage, please, and give it to my lady friend. I have a supper engagement with her and wanted her to know where to meet me after the performance."

As the young man had purchased no tickets and the "house" was under no obligations to accommodate him, his presumption was coldly met by the treasurer, and he departed with many mutterings concerning the unobliging service at the Monumental.

"That new St. Regis Hotel must have cost a pile of money to build and furnish," said Eddie Foy the other day as he and a brother comedian were passing that hotel, the fame of which rests upon the terrifically high prices which guests are called upon to pay there. "I wish I had money enough to buy one like it," he added retrospectively.

"Why," said his friend, "what would you, an actor, do with a hotel like the St. Regis? You wouldn't know how to run it."

"I know I wouldn't," said Foy, with one of his serio-comic looks, "I didn't wish for the hotel, I merely observed that I'd like the money."

It is related of Stuart Robson that a certain newspaper published, through an inadvertence, a paragraph which had been prepared to quickly insert in case of the death of the actor, which was not unlikely at the time, as he was dangerously ill.

Upon his safe recovery a friend laughingly handed him the ominous clipping, which he had preserved. After reading and joining in the laugh, Robson seated himself at a desk and penned a short letter to the editor of the newspaper, which, however, had afterwards published a correction of the paragraph.

"Dear Sir, (wrote the comedian) I wish to correct a few discrepancies in your kind obituary of me, published in a recent date of your esteemed paper. The cause of my death was not typhoid fever, and I'm living in hopes that it never will be; I was not born in Buffalo, as you erroneously stated; I am not an eminent tragedian—only a comedian, though I've had aspirations, like all comedians, to be a tragedian, and I'm not leaving a large family to mourn my loss, as your paragrapher writes."

A fatherly looking conductor on a Pullman was once talking with Maude Adams concerning her profession. During the short conversation the fact was mentioned of the delicate appearing little actress having played her part in "The Little Minister" for three years, "and I'm tired of it," said she, "it has grown to be so monotonous."

"Then, why don't you get another job?" solicitously inquired the fatherly conductor, evidently having no conception of the reasons which govern the length of time a star may play a part.

MR. AND MRS. GEO. H. WILSON
Are two of the most expert dancers in this country and they have plenty of dates booked ahead. Mr. Wilson is styled "The King of Dancers." He is also director and head of the Wilson School of Stage Dancing, Vaudeville and Dramatic Art, in New York City, which has received the endorsement of many prominent managers and performers.

Notes from the Hunt Stock Co.: "We opened the present tour Aug. 24, 1904, at Coldwater, Mich., and have met with uniform success all along the line, having confined our route to Indiana, upper and lower Michigan and Wisconsin. The company is almost the same as present as it was on the opening day, which speaks worlds for the management. Our fair dates this fall have been great with time always at advanced prices. The first accident to the show happened during our engagement at Charlotte, N. C. The show was in the ladies' dressing room. The quick and efficient work of the fire department put an end to what might have been a serious fire. All of the clothes of the lady members were destroyed by fire or chemicals, but at night the show went on as usual. During the same engagement the celebrated Devlin Zouaves, who were the leading attraction at the fair being held that week, kindly consented to their act at one of our performances. Thursday night the stage was cleared after the first act and for twenty minutes the large audience was held in admiration by the beautiful and intricate evolutions performed in graceful and military precision. The Devlin Zouaves are a fine body of men and a credit to the college they represent. The Devlin Business College of Jackson, Mich. Mr. Hunt opens his 'Monte Cristo' show about Jan. 5, and Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will play the leading roles. The Hunt Stock will be under the management of B. H. Killmar, the present business manager. This is Mr. Killmar's third year with Mr. Hunt. The roster is as follows: M. A. Hunt, C. R. Hunt, B. H. Killmar, Geo. R. Taylor, Will H. Griffin, L. M. Coppens, E. A. Calkins, Frank Harrington, Percy Quinn, Chas. Spears, Claude McDonald, Oscar Mannersom, Jac. Illig, Clyde Vanderburg, Eugene Mills, Jessie Taylor, Nora Fitzgibbon, Marie Fitzgibbon and Kate Fitzgibbon."

Olle Shelton writes: "The Sheltons closed Oct. 22 with the Terry Co., owing to the illness of my wife. I will have a quartette with Stetson's 'U. S. C.' Co. for the remainder of the season."

World of Players.

Selby Comedy Co. Notes: Despite numerous campaign rallies, railroad excursions and several other counter attractions, this company continues to do a most satisfactory business. New plays are constantly being added to our repertoire, which now consists of twelve productions. Ward and Warbler, the well known Southern singers, joined last week, and are proving big drawing cards. That the company is giving the best of satisfaction is proven by the excellent press notices and return dates that we have received wherever the company has appeared. Our three weeks' stay among the Thousand Islands, which included many enjoyable boat rides, hunting and fishing excursions and other local attractions, was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

THE UNIQUE TRIO.

Hagan, La Petite Alma and Hagan, comedy sketch trio, whose pictures appear above, are fast coming to the front in vaudeville. La Petite Alma began her stage career at the age of five years, and has appeared in several plays and musicals. She is now playing at the Lafayette Square Opera House, Washington, where she played Georgia, in "From Frou" Frederick G. Berger, Sarand Berger, Otis Harlan, in "A Brass Monkey," Chase's Musical Comedy Stock Co., Little Red Riding Hood, in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" (stock) and has played the leading vaudeville houses of the country, including Chase's, Baltimore, Md., Chase's, Washington, D. C., and Glen Echo Amphitheatre. She has now joined hands with the well known Hagan Bros., singers and acrobatic dancers, who present their own compositions. Since joining hands the Hagan Bros. have written a new twenty minute act, introducing singing, toe dancing, contortion and acrobatics, which are a pronounced success at the Casino Theatre, Ocean City, Md. They have just closed a season of summer parks through Michigan and Canada.

Master Le Roy E. Sumner, of "Her Mad Marriage" Co., was thrown from his horse at Atlantic City recently and severely injured. He was sent to his home in Providence, R. I., where he is rapidly recovering. Hans Hansen, Notes: Frank Fehman, trap drummer, is now in his second season with the show. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Buchanan are also with us. Mr. Buchanan playing cornet in the band and orchestra and Mrs. Buchanan playing the role of Lottie. They are booked for next summer for a circuit of parks in their novelty musical act. Business is good and THE OLD RELIABLE is with us every week.

Olle Eaton, who has been ill since July 17, is recovering and hopes to leave St. Luke's Hospital, at Dayton, Ia., shortly. It will be several weeks before she will be able to resume work.

W. C. Elmendorf, business manager of "Her Mad Marriage" Co., retired from that organization Oct. 15, at Providence, R. I.

Notes from the Corinne Runkel Stock Co.: We opened our season at Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 30 with special printing and a carload of scenery for the following plays: "The Slave Girl," "A Daughter of Denmark," "For Health and Home," "The Little Rebel," "A House of Two Much Trouble," "A Strange Girl" and "Cinderella." The roster is as follows: H. K. Hexter, proprietor and manager; M. Runkel, advance; R. F. Meyers, business manager; F. G. Parry, stage director; Geo. M. Fee, stage carpenter and electrician; Jack Guthorn, master of properties; Geo. Bare, shide, musical director; Bernard Fairfax, Crag Royston, F. G. Parry, Jack Norman, Clarence Leewood, Geo. M. Fee, Jack Guthorn, David Runkel, Corinne Runkel, Annette Marshall, Elysian Holmes, Ella Brice, Vivian Carson, Rita Rose and our little mascot, "Baby" Mignon. The vaudeville entertainment is furnished by: The Runkels, "The Comedian and the Dainty Soubrette," Norman and Brice, in "Hooligan and the Maid"; Geo. M. Fee, baritone singer; Vivian Carson, leading comedienne, and the Sisters Violet. We also carry a moving picture and illustrated song machine.

Richard C. Maddox, singing comedian, is in his thirty-seventh week as leading comedian of the Murray Comedy Co., and is producing seven new dialect specialties, which are the biggest successes of his career.

Roscoe and Sims, musical comedians, are touring the State of Wisconsin with their own company, making three nights and one week stands, producing all royalty plays. They carry a band of twelve people and an acting company of eleven people.

F. E. Blanchard writes: "My CLIPPER 'ad.' of recent date, brought me several good offers. They were declined, however, for I decided to remain with the Myrtle-Harder Co."

Jean Foxcroft closed with the Downing, Chakras, Kasimir Co., in support of Lew Benedict, and will rejoin Davenport's Farce Comedy Co. Nov. 17, for characters and his specialty.

Notes from Mattice Stock Co.: Business was never better and we are packing them in from far and near. Vincent McDonald is making a decided hit in his ballads. The manager is well pleased with his company, and links he'll make quick jump through the South, taking in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Virginia and Tennessee.

Walter Parr, Fred Montague and Margaret Bourke go with "Escaped from Sing Sing." Louis Muldener goes with the Auld-Belgrade Repertory Co.

Eleanor Browning has withdrawn from "Escaped from the Harem."

Mabel Hawthorne and Jessie Griswold have joined hands and are with "The Streets of New York" Co., doing their specialty and playing parts. Miss Griswold is playing characters and Miss Hawthorne the leads. Their act, they write, is taking four and five encores nightly.

Mamie Lincoln Pixley is scoring a success with the "New York Day by Day" Co., in the title role and her singing and dancing specialty.

Will H. Fields writes: "I am in my eighth week as Solly Cohen, in M. W. Taylor's big scenic production, 'Why Women Sin,' doing the comedy role and my specialty in the third act, which is a success everywhere. I will go back in vaudeville at the close of my season with this company."

Herbert Miller, late leading man of "The Span of Life" Co., sailed for London recently. He will tour through the provinces. Notes from the German Lilliputians (Tschudi's): We opened the season at Beloit, Wis., to a very pleasing business, carrying eighteen people, band and orchestra. The company is much stronger than last season, and the play is entirely changed. Roster includes: J. U. Tschudi, owner and manager; S. E. Beattie, treasurer and advance; C. R. Smith, Prof. H. Lanzner's World's Fair Band and Orchestra, Oscar Luttringer, G. M. White, A. Vassa, John Frank, Jule Dell, Lola Cox, Marie Barrall, Pearl K. Poole, Jennie Tianta, George Tianta, Jack Dion, Gus Anderson, George Beach, Gus Alexander.

Della Pringle writes: "I was granted a divorce from G. Faith Adams on Oct. 8, at my home in Knoxville, Ia. In the division of the property and real estate Mr. Adams deeded me his share of the eighty acre farm, the Summer home in town, called 'The Maples,' all the household furniture, live stock, horses, cows, all the show property, rights and titles of the Della Pringle Co. Mr. Adams retained the private car, 'Della,' and half of the money that was in the bank. Mr. Adams has been conducting excursions on the private car to the World's Fair, St. Louis, and I have spent the entire Summer in Knoxville."

Ada Gifford, who has been connected with prominent operatic and farce comedy organizations in the past three seasons, writes that she will be seen in dramatic roles in future. She is this season playing Lena, in Melville B. Raymond's production of "Arizona."

Bert Jarvis, cornet soloist with the Ed. F. Davis "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Co., met with a painful accident recently while on parade, in Westfield, N. Y., having been run over by a team attached to a heavy wagon. The wagon passed over his body, fracturing several ribs, breaking his little finger and lacerating his face badly.

Notes from "Eben Holden" Co.: We are doing big business everywhere and pleasing the people. Our production is complete in every detail and we have the following well balanced company: Henry Horton, Samuel D. Merrill, Chas. D. Chapman, Arthur B. Jennings, Wm. Gillette, Austin Conroy, Chas. Higgins, John J. Clark, Ruth Underwood, Blanch Kendall, Adele Leonard and Theodore Thaylor. We are booked solid to the Pacific coast and back. Everything indicates a prosperous and pleasant season.

Harry Van, Clytie Barkley and Baby Jim are in Waterloo, Ia., for the rest of the Winter season. Mr. Van is musical director there and Clytie Barkley is singing illustrated songs at Johnson's Electric Theatre. Manager T. M. Jordan has resigned his position as manager of the Schwartz Opera House, Waukegan, Ill. He is succeeded by Robert Fulton, a resident of the town. Mr. Fulton was formerly leader of the orchestra at that house.

AMELIA BARLEONE
Was born in Chicago, and for several seasons was connected with the musical college of that city. Her clever work at that institution secured for her an engagement with E. H. Sothorn, of whose company she was a member for two seasons. Miss Barleone is at present appearing in vaudeville with John Jack and Company.

Roster of the Lillian Douglass Co.: R. L. Strader, business manager; Jack Parsons, stage manager; J. S. Pittman, leader of orchestra; Lillian Douglass, Jack Parsons, Carl Copeland, Mabel Derringer, Theo Wyrick, Zittella Hood, Leonora Hickerson, Allen Wishert, Effie Wishert, Wade Hamilton and Jen Morgan. Business is big, and return dates are offered all along the line.

Notes from Dr. Morgan's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Co.: We are playing to capacity all along the line. Show is giving great satisfaction. Ten horses, two ponies and three donkeys move the show. Our parade is like a circus, and creates a favorable expression everywhere we play.

Frank Bosworth, the veteran actor, writes: "I closed with Eller's company at the end of the tenting season, which has been a very successful one of thirty weeks, at the same time closing a professional career of fifty-two years, Nov. 1, at South McAllister, Boquillas, Mexico. It is my intention to reside in Southern Texas, near Boquillas, on the Rio Grande River. Eller's company of twenty-eight people and two palace cars have successfully toured Illinois, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma and Indian Territory, and have not failed to secure THE OLD RELIABLE each week and keep abreast of the times in the amusement line. THE CLIPPER reaches everywhere and is a welcome guest."

Hazel Waine has retired from "A Funny Side of Life" Co.

Maurice Stanford and Emily Smiley have withdrawn from the De Haven Stock Co., with which they were playing the leads and heaves.

The Ben F. Mack Stock Co. opened at Laconia, N. H., Oct. 17, and report business as excellent.

Mrs. Frank Davis goes with "Maud Muller."

Cameron Clemens, who has been confined to his bed for some time with inflammatory rheumatism, is dangerously ill at his home in Dorchester, Mass.

Carl M. Dalton, who is directing Minnie McVicker's Western tour, writes: "The company is doing a very satisfactory business through the middle West. We now number eleven people, with H. L. Maxwell in advance. We received over two hundred and fifty answers to our last CLIPPER ad. and 'The Woman in Blue,' with Minnie McVicker in the title role, is making good everywhere. On our jump from Blue Earth, Minn., to Hampton, Ia., Mr. Maxwell made arrangements with the officials of the Iowa Central Railway to run a special coach on their early morning freight to get the company in on time for the performance. In a pouring rain we transferred at Algona, Ia., and found a passenger coach instead of a caboose to ride in. The roster remains the same as at the opening of the season, with the following people in support of Miss McVicker: Bert Hampton, Harry Brown, Fred Mantell, Chas. Richards, I. M. McVickers, Verna Dalton, Laura Hampton and Hazelle Russell."

W. S. Maguire, the general advertising and excursion agent of Paine's "Last Days of Pompeii," closed with that company at Waco, Tex., Oct. 17. Mr. Maguire contemplates organizing a company to tour Northern New York and Canada.

Notes from "Why Women Sin" Co.: "Business with this attraction continues excellent. We are now on the Chamberlin & Harrington circuit. Managers and press are loud in their praise at the way the play is staged. We have not had a rehearsal since starting out and everybody is enjoying the best of health. At a recent banquet given by the company in honor of the third anniversary of our manager, Jake B. Murray, Mr. Allyn presented him with a solid gold watch and chain. Our general representative, W. Edmunds, has booked this attraction solid to the coast and back."

Roster of Western "Quincy Adams Sawyer" Co.: Frank M. Morgan, manager; Robert J. Mercer, advance representative; William A. Williams, E. St. Anderson, Earl C. Monroe, Fred W. Hartman, Geo. W. Hammond, W. P. Nannery, S. H. Verney, W. P. Plummer, Paul Linton, Viola Armstrong, Clara Coleman, Edith Wright, Phyllis Bostwick, Helen E. Butler, Mabel Staffin, Mrs. Frank A. Tannehill, Eusebius Wilson, Si Merritt, scenic artist; Robert Gillet, master of properties; Walter Carmichael, electrician.

W. E. La Rose, of "The Midnight Flyer" Co., writes: "At a special meeting of the Owasso, Mich., Aerle No. 851, of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Herbert K. Nollette, F. G. Rice and I, of Ed. Anderson's 'Midnight Flyer' Co., took the obligations and became full fledged Eagles. The Eagles were out in full force and President Gillet occupied his chair. The aerle, although very young, is one of the strongest in the State of Michigan. After the initiation was over an elegant luncheon was served, speeches were made and great jollity followed, the new Eagles doing their share of the entertaining."

Jas. B. Mackie writes: "Grimes' Cellular Door" is doing a good business on the "Broad Basket circuit," which includes Brainard, Crookston, Grand Forks, Grafton, Winnipeg, Fargo and North Dakota, on the Northern Pacific. The company numbers eighteen people, including the Five Ours Family, jugglers and globe runners, and a hit at every place we play. My route is booked solid to the coast, playing Thanksgiving week at Portland, Ore., with a week at Seattle, Wash., and Christmas at Salt Lake City, Utah, and over the Silver circuit of Peter McCourt, playing New Year's day (Sunday) at Victor, Col., then week of Jan. 15 at Denver, at the New Curtis Street Theatre, then down through Oklahoma Territory into Texas, playing the Great Wall circuit, being a great hit in the South. W. F. Plack is not connected with this company, he having resigned to take the advance of "Princess Chic," using his trick dog, Dan, for a novelty. Things are booming in the West."

Joe Welch closes his season in "The Peddler" under Sullivan, Harris & Woods' management, Nov. 5, and continues his season under Stair & Nicolai's management.

Agnes Carlton has left "The Lights of Home" Co.

Wallace Shaw, after a tour of two years with the Frawley Dramatic Co. through India, Africa, Australia, etc., will arrive in this city shortly.

Notes from the Myers Stock Co., featuring Rosabelle Leslie: "Our business continues up to the usual standard, being in excess of what we anticipated at the opening, indicating that the show is more than making good. Our repertoire is pronounced one of the strongest at popular prices, being all standard royalty bills, the rights to which we control exclusively in our territory. It includes the following plays: 'The Black Hand,' 'Beware of Men,' 'The Sign of the Four,' 'At Coy's Corners,' 'Man's Enemy,' 'On the Stroke of Twelve,' 'A Woman's Victory,' 'Her Brother's Crime,' 'The Temptation of Sin' and 'East Lynne.' We were obliged to lay off three days in the week of Oct. 24, owing to the closing of the house at Phillipsburg, Pa."

Josephine Sabel was an added feature with the Fenberg Stock Co. during their engagement at Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 10. Nellie Blanchard replaced Marie Gilmer for leading business with this company, opening at Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 24.

Notes and roster of the Wilson-Waterman two stock companies, playing indefinite engagements at the Empire Theatre, Houston, Tex., and at Bush Temple, Dallas, Tex. This is the eleventh week of both companies and business has been exceptionally good. Roster of company No. 1: Wilson & Waterman, proprietors; Claude T. Prescott, manager; Rose Mayo, Vincent Elton, Miss Adelyn, L. Meredith, Jos. De Steinfel, J. F. Echezar, Claude T. Prescott, Harry English, H. E. Chase, Roy Jones, Bruce Rinaldo and J. L. Edwards. Company No. 2: Effie Hext, Hettie Bernard, Chase, Katherine B. Mann, Raymond Whitaker, Frederic Lorraine, Harold Cornell, Lee King, Jack J. Flynn, J. Harry Knowles and Phil Davis. Every production is mounted with special scenery and effects and classic productions are staged. Messrs. Wilson & Waterman have the privilege of the house at Houston's most popular stock company. They have also leased a circuit of parks for their Summer season.

Maude Leone is leading woman with W. E. Nankeville's "Human Hearts" Co. (West.)

The following people have been engaged for Fred C. Taylor's scenic production, "An Idiot Slave": E. K. Kopf, business manager; Edwin Shantler, advertising agent; Pauline West, Margaret Rice, Adelle Brasseur, L. B. Head, H. C. Bannister, U. S. Allen, Karl Lenham, Geo. W. Morrison and B. Lacy. The company will carry special scenery for each set and have a full complement of special pictorial printing, consisting of sixteen different kinds.

H. M. Reiss writes that he has reorganized his big musical extravaganza, "A Circus Day," and has booked a route of thirty weeks in all the best one night stands. Roster: H. M. Reiss, proprietor; Wash Martin, business manager; H. R. Wood, musical director; Morton and Diamond, Geo. Gebhardt, Jennings, Madeline West, Emily St. Clair, Ruby Carr, May Anderson, Annie Davis, Hattie Perry, Florence Green and May Sweeney.

Frank M. Willard, formerly with the John E. Parker Repertory Co., has signed with the Auld-Belgrade Amusement Co.

Lyons and Lyons, after a successful trip through the Northwest territories with the National Stock Co., have joined Marks Bros. A No. 1 Co., doing their singing and dancing specialties and playing parts. This is their third season with this company.

Vaudeville and Minstrel.

THE MILITARY QUARTET write: "We are the feature act on every bill we have appeared on over the Mose Goldsmith N. W. vaudeville circuit. Manager Peckham, of the Cineograph, Spokane, Wash., and Manager Alsop, of the Family Theatre, Butte, Mont., say we have the prettiest and strongest singing act that has ever played their houses. We followed the Fern Comedy Four in Butte. Regards to all friends. We have return engagements over the entire circuit."

EDWIN COLLINS AND MADEIRA KENNEDY write: "We are this season appearing in vaudeville, after two years of unprecedented success in the Rays' universally popular 'A Hot Old Time,' in which company Mr. Collins was the comedian. Our present offering is a one act farce comedy, entitled 'Mooney, the Expressman,' with a special set of handsome scenery, painted by Sosman & Landis, of Chicago. One of the many features of this little farce are the gowns worn by Miss Kennedy. Mr. Collins appears in the character made famous by Johnny Ray."

E. W. MARSH joined Guy Brothers' Minstrels at Wingham, Can., Oct. 21.

PATCHEN AND CLIFTON are playing a few weeks in Pennsylvania, New York and Canada, and will return East to play Pastor's and Proctor's on return dates. They were so successful in Utica, at the Star Theatre, that the management held them over.

TOM KELLY, "The Minstrel Tenor," and Geo. F. Gallot announce that they are still together, notwithstanding reports to the contrary, and are booked almost solid up to Feb. 1, 1905.

IRENE MAY has been engaged by John Greaves for his stock company at the Olympic Theatre, New York City, for soprano roles.

CLARA COLE has been engaged by John Greaves for his stock company, for the season, at the Olympic Theatre, New York City.

TA THAUMA, toe balancing aerialist is recovering from an operation which was performed at the Presbyterian Hospital, N. Y. City.

CAFFERY AND GRANT have just finished ten continuous weeks on the New England circuit and have several return dates.

COOKS AND MISS ROTHERT write from Antwerp, Bel., as follows: "We finish here tonight and open at the Nouveau Cirque, Ghent, Oct. 15, King George of Saxony died and Germany is in what they call landstrauer. All theatres are closed for five days. This leaves us to open on Oct. 20, at the Krystal Palast, a return engagement from last year. From here we go to the Wintergarten, Berlin, for November, our second trip. In December we open at the New Coliseum, London, for Mr. Stoll, which house, by the way, is promised to surpass anything in theatricals in the whole of Europe. Jan. 23 we open in Moscow, Russia, another return from last year. April will find us back in America until Sept. 1, 1905, when we open in Vienna, Austria, with a continental tour to follow until 1907, in all the leading cities and principal theatres. Miss Rothert's costumes are admired here and her splendid make up as a Spanish girl has evoked general admiration. Every detail of her costume has been carefully thought out. The result is charming in the extreme. We have a new act in preparation, which will be produced shortly."

CONN AND CONRAD report meeting with success at Chase's, Washington, D. C., week of 24-29. They played Keeney's, Brooklyn, week of 31-Nov. 5. They sail for Europe 16.

RICE AND CADY write: "We have had a very successful season on the Pacific coast of one year, closing at Fischer's Theatre, San Francisco, Oct. 23. The cause of our closing at Fischer's Theatre was that the management were unable to secure good pieces for us, so we decided to give in our notice, which was deeply regretted. We were given a great send off on our closing night, at which each member of the company made a speech. Messrs. Fischer and Reiman treated us royally. We open at the Alvin Theatre, Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7."

Geo. and Laura Le Noir, marionette manipulators, after playing sixteen weeks on the Lang circuit and six weeks on the Weston circuit, in California, are playing six weeks in Southern California, and play a return engagement on the Lubelski circuit in Utah and Colorado. Next season they will be with the Great Wallace Show, where they will be a feature of the side show.

BILLIE MERRIAM, gymnast, is en route with Gay's Electric Co.

ROSTER AND NOTES FROM BARLOW & WILSON'S MINSTRELS—Lawrence Barlow, Bob Wilson, Tom Barlow, Fred Wilson, Harry Martin, Frank Lawrence, Harry Spangler, Ted Primrose, James Kennedy, T. Mandit, Waldo, Alfonso Gray, Louis Hurt, Acken, Smith and Bonton, Tom Amar, Darcy Campbell, Amos, Harry Rennells, S. Ham, Frank Seekins, James Eckles, James McQuarrie, George Taft, Jean Foster, Louis Walsh, Frank Willard, Will Johnson, John Adams, Lawrence Young, Louis Girard, Harry Mason, Bayard, Frank Ryan, James Armstrong, Bob Holly, Frank Bailey, Ted Hughes and John Ferri are included in our roster. This company is in the twelfth week of its season and business continues fine. Our company now numbers forty people.

JOHN F. FIELDS, manager of the Fields & Hanson Big City Minstrels, was a CLIPPER caller Oct. 27, and stated that the company will open on the New England circuit Dec. 28. Fields and Hanson play vaudeville dates until that time.

THE WILSON TRIO, in their comedy Dutch act, will finish their vaudeville engagements at Keeney's Theatre, Brooklyn, then begin rehearsals with a company to open Nov. 14.

MORRIS MCCAMMON, musical director, has signed for the season at the Crystal Theatre, Marion, Ind.

HATES AND ERNEST, German comedians, are in Southern California, where they remain in the West until next August, when they take out their own show. They recently purchased a piece of land, on which they contemplate erecting a residence in the near future. They will have as neighbors Geo. Le Noir and the Stetson Sisters.

CLIFFORD AND CLINE have dissolved partnership. Dave Clifford, Hebrew comedian, has joined hands with Will Raymond, and the team will be known as Clifford and Raymond. They report meeting with success in their new act, a travesty on "Hamlet."

ROBIN FREAR HEATH writes: "I was compelled to cancel the week of Oct. 24 at Keith's New York house on account of sickness. I played the Grand Opera House, Pittsburgh, week of Oct. 17, and left for home immediately after the performance Saturday night."

BLANCHE STETSON AND HERMIE NIXON are in Southern California, where their act, "Is Marriage a Failure?" is meeting with favorable comment. They contemplate a visit to Australia and will have a companion, Fannie Donovan, who is booked on the same circuit, and they expect to be abroad for the next two years. While in California they were the guests of Mrs. Geo. Le Noir, with whom they will spend a month, on a ranch, previous to sailing.

THE WASHER BROS., midjet boxers, write that they closed a successful season of nine weeks with the World's Fair Carnival Co., Oct. 8, and opened an engagement of twenty-five weeks at the Crystal circuit, beginning at Joplin, Mo., Oct. 17.

THE BARTELMES, Louis and Bessie, foot jugglers and head to head balancers, closed at the Lyric Theatre, San Diego, Cal., Oct. 16, and opened at the Orpheum, Riverside, Cal., for two weeks, with two weeks at Unique, Los Angeles, Cal., to follow.

THE LAMONIS write that they were very successful at Keith's, Boston, week of Oct. 24-29, and played Orpheum, Utica, N. Y., week of 31-Nov. 5.

BINGHAM, the ventriloquist, Belle Verna and the Three Auburns have booked twenty weeks en route to San Francisco.

THE DAVIES DUO recently closed a very successful week at Cripple Creek with their novelty ring act. They have been six weeks on this circuit. The remarkable strength of Fern Davies is causing much comment. They open on the Lubelski circuit, California, shortly.

Geo. W. LESLIE played the York Theatre, St. John, N. B., week of Oct. 31, with Lowell, Mass.; Utica, Buffalo and London, Ont., to follow. He opens on the Kohl & Castle circuit at the Olympic, Chicago, Dec. 12.

KLEIN AND KLEIN recently finished over the Kohl & Castle circuit, and report success in their original laughing comedy, with which they have secured bookings until July 31, 1905. Their act, we are informed, is a decided novelty.

THE FOUR JUGGLING MORTONS write that they were headliners on a bill which opened the new Utahna Auditorium, in Ogden, Utah, Oct. 17. Their comedy club act has been featured on the opening bill of ten new houses in the West since July 1.

TOM HARRIS opened on the Crystal circuit Oct. 30, at St. Joseph, Mo.

J. MARTIN HARRIS, formerly of Harris and Merlo, and George Norton, comedian, have joined hands. Their new act, "You're On My Feet," is a sure winner, they inform us.

FOX AND WARD report that they are playing return dates at the leading vaudeville theatres in California.

NOTES FROM THE GREAT TRAVELLER CO.—While playing the Auditorium Theatre, Montpelier, Idaho, we were tendered a banquet by Aerle No. 119, R. O. E., after our performance. During the evening several specialties were rendered by members of our company, and a most pleasant evening was passed. Lillian Landers and Grace Carroll were made honorary members and presented with beautiful badges. The company is playing a big business and is receiving praise from press and managers at every place we play. The company includes: The Sheck Bros., B. F. Forbes and Co., E. H. Rume, T. M. Cline and the Great Traveler Co. The company is under the management of B. F. Forbes, and is booked in the best three night and week stands through Nebraska and Kansas, after which we play direct East.

LE HONGBER AND PEARL DAVIS were CLIPPER callers Oct. 29. During their visit they informed us that they had been married in this city on Oct. 7.

JACK H. SUTTER writes that his eccentric specialty is being well received. He is playing in and around New York.

NOTES FROM THE PEARL COMEDY CO.—This is our fifth week in opera houses and business has been good. Our roster: Jack Parks, manager; Joe De Talm, comedian and juggler; Claude Boyce, comedian; Lulu Bell, song counter and illustrated songs; Anna La Marr, soubrette; Miss Detolem, pianist; Billy Sutton, wire, ring and trapeze, and Boyce and Boyce, sketch team. THE OLD RELIABLE reaches us every week and is a welcome caller to all.

THE MOYNE AND LE LANGR write that they played the Star Theatre, Pittsburgh, week of Oct. 24-29, and met with gratifying success. They were at the Venetian Garden, Steubenville, O., Oct. 31-Nov. 5, and are booked through the West.

MITCHELL AND WARREN have added a street parade to their act. The new feature scored strongly in New Haven, Conn., recently.

SAM BROOKS, of the Brooks Bros., and Rose Jeannette were CLIPPER callers Oct. 29, and stated that they were married in New York City on Oct. 23.

Mrs. EDWIN WINCHESTER, of the Musical Winchester, presented her husband with a baby girl on Oct. 27.

V. F. WOODWARD played Proctor's, Albany, week of Oct. 24, with the Clifton Theatre, this city, and the Orpheum, Utica, N. Y., to follow.

AL. MARTZ informs us that his specialty company closed a very successful season of twenty-five weeks at New Boston, N. H., Oct. 29, having been out since April 9. Manager Martz will lay off until after the election and the holidays are over, and then take his company out again.

LAYNE AND RUSSELL opened at the Garden Theatre, Canton, O., recently. Ed Layne has been engaged by Mr. Manning to take the management of his company. Marvel Russell was a decided success in her character act.

MAKE UP YOUR TEETH AND SMILE

The Lou Lee Long Trio write from Canada: "We just closed ten weeks of fair dates through Canada for W. Bank, of Toronto. Will play dates this Winter. We are at the Orpheum, Montreal, Nov. 7, with the Star Theatre, Utica, N. Y., to follow."

BARNES AND WASHBURN write: "We have just opened in the West, and like it very much, because our act is as big a success as in the East. After our extreme Western time we go on the Kohl & Castle and Orpheum circuits, with the Keith and Proctor circuits to follow, making our time solid to Sept. 3, 1905."

HARRY THOMSON, "Mayor of the Bowery," reports meeting with his usual success in the West. His monologue was a feature at the Columbia, St. Louis, week of Oct. 24-29, and at the Chicago Opera House 31-Nov. 5.

THE D'ARVILLE SISTERS, Jeanette and Irene, the French fencing girls, are making a tour of the South, and are meeting with success.

MCDERMOTT & DIAMOND BROS.' MINSTRELS were entertained by the Charleston, W. Va., Elks recently.

NAUEL AND ADAMS, novelty and comedy duo, just closed at the Unique Theatre, San Francisco, and report meeting with success. They open on the Goldsmith circuit Nov. 14.

WM. LYKENS is booking a new musical sketch, entitled "Who Did It?" lyrics by Max Rossi and music by Louis J. Monaco. Misses Berger and D'Este, William Snyder, the well known harpists, and Rossi are in the cast. The sketch is said to be original and bright.

KITTIE O'BRIEN, of Verne and O'Brien, informs us that she is not the Kittie O'Brien who lost her wardrobe in the recent fire at the Orpheum Theatre, Davenport, Ia.

THE CARTER TRIO will go to St. Louis after the season closes, to rehearse a new musical act.

JIM AND LOTTIE RUTHERFORD

Make up a comedy team which is rapidly gaining prominence in vaudeville. Their new comedy act, "A Case of Snakes," written by Mr. Rutherford, gives Miss Rutherford an excellent opportunity to display her versatility. She possesses a pleasing soprano voice, is a clever dancer and a good musician, executing operatic and popular selections on the saxophone, and subjugates a den of monster pythons and boa constrictors. Mr. Rutherford is a well known clown and comedian, and his eccentric comedy and originality have won him much popularity. They are booked for an extensive Western tour, opening in Milwaukee Dec. 12.

KOLER AND SEYMOUR inform us that they are meeting with success throughout the West and are booked solid until April, having just closed twenty successful weeks on the Lang-Edison circuit, and opened Oct. 10 on the Empire circuit through California. After this they play return dates on the Lang-Edison circuit for twenty-two weeks.

SAM EVANS writes that he has a strong vaudeville company. The season opened in Seymour, Conn., Nov. 2. The roster: Eddy Lightfoot, magician; King and Fickett, Geo. Raynor, tenor; Ella and Bertha Weston, sister act; Kittle Dales, serlo-comic; John Clancy, leader, and Al. Henry Bean, manager.

BLESSING AND KERR left for Savannah, Ga., for a four weeks' stay at the New Alhambra there. They will play further South before returning to New York. They inform us that they have been meeting with success during all engagements so far this season.

HATHAWAY AND WALTON write from Indianapolis: "We have lost one week in eighteen (as the Olympic Theatre, Chicago, did not open) and still have twenty consecutive weeks booked, including the Anderson circuit, Powers, Grand Rapids; Orpheum, Utica; Mohawk, Schenectady; the Poli circuit, New Bedford; Pastor's, and the Keith circuit. Next season we will add to our dancing act a novelty spectacular finish, and will carry our own scenery and lights."

DEVINE AND WOLLEY state that their air ship is a success with Al. Reeves' Big Show. NEIL LITCHFIELD writes from England: "We are now on the Macnaghton tour, with the Livermore and Stoll tours to follow. Our act is being featured 'at the bottom,' or, as we would put it in America, 'added attraction,' and is making as good a laughing hit as in the States."

THE THREE PRINCES, whose sketch is entitled "The Yankee Farmer," have returned from the West, after playing successful engagements of one year and seven months from Mexico to British Columbia, taking in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Utah and Colorado. They have returned to Chicago, where they have bought a home.

JERRY CUNNINGHAM reports that he made a success on the "end" with Dumont's Minstrels, Philadelphia, Oct. 17.

THE GORDON SISTERS are preparing entirely new apparatus for their specialty. They will introduce a Boston terrier bag puncher. MARSHALL AND ERVIN returned to Chicago week of Oct. 24 after playing twenty-five successful weeks over the Bijou, Nash and Crystal circuits, playing return dates on the way back East at Denver, Lincoln, Leavenworth and Joplin. They play return engagements over the Bijou and Nash circuits of ten weeks and are booked solid until April 1, 1905.

AL. H. TRELL writes: "I had everything destroyed in fire at the Grand Theatre, Toledo, O., but am telling the stories to them in street clothes, and with good prospects ahead."

BILLY LINK was called to his home, Columbus, O., while playing Cook's Opera House, Rochester, N. Y., recently. His son, Billy Link Jr., eight years old, was seriously injured while climbing on a buggy; his foot caught in the spokes as the horse started, breaking his leg and tearing the ligaments loose under the knee. He is in Grant Hospital.

EDWIN GEORGE reports that he made a decided hit at Lynn, Mass., upon his first appearance as an eccentric juggler, and was immediately booked for Gloucester, Mass. THE MISSISS RAYMOND, RUSSELL AND FULLER, of Clark's Runaway Girls Co., entertained Misses Gordon, Lawrence and Raymond, of the same company, at a luncheon after the show Oct. 25, in honor of Miss Russell's birthday. Covers were laid for seven and the affair, we are informed, was a very enjoyable one.

FRANCIS J. GILLEN, leads, and L. Jerome Ingram, heavies, with the Halcyon Stock Co., have resigned, and are making preparations to open in a short time in a new vaudeville act at one of the New York houses. THE THOIRADOUR FOUR, Nat Wixon, Harry Thornton, Burt Eaton and William Fuller, sailed for Europe Nov. 2. They will open their European engagements Nov. 28, at Cardiff, Wales.

CONNELLY AND ROWE report success in their new singing and dancing act. They play Dockstader's, Wilmington, Del., Dec. 19; Baltimore 26, Pastor's, New York, Jan. 2; and the Howard, Boston, 9.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston.—The only novelty in the current week's theatrical offering is "The Secret of Polichinelle" at the Park. At the Globe, Stella Mayhew will be seen in "Flo Flo," and the Grand Opera House production is "David Harum." The Castle Square change of bill is "The Professor's Love Story" and the Bowdoin Square attraction is "True Irish Hearts." The usual new faces are seen at the vaudeville and burlesque houses and the Tremont, Hollis, Boston, Colonial and Majestic have continued shows.

Park Theatre (Chas. Frohman, Rich & Harris, managers).—"The Secret of Polichinelle." With W. H. Thompson, featured, opens Monday, 7, an engagement of two weeks. The cast is practically the original New York one and includes beside Mr. Thompson, W. J. Ferguson, Drina De Wolfe, Ida Darling, Florence Conran, Harriet Sterling, Kathryn Kera, Frank Patton and Edward Harris. May Irwin, in "Mrs. Black Back," closed Saturday, 5, a prosperous two weeks' stay.

Globe Theatre (Stair & Wilbur, managers).—"The attraction opening Monday, 7, is Stella Mayhew in "Flo Flo," and the Grand Opera House production is "David Harum." The Castle Square change of bill is "The Professor's Love Story" and the Bowdoin Square attraction is "True Irish Hearts." The usual new faces are seen at the vaudeville and burlesque houses and the Tremont, Hollis, Boston, Colonial and Majestic have continued shows.

Tremont Theatre (Jno. R. Schoeffel, manager).—"Henshott's Comedy." her second week, in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," on Monday night, 7. Both the star and the play merited the approval of large audiences the past week. "The Yankee Consul," with Raymond Hitchcock, is announced for two weeks, commencing 28, with "The County Chairman" to follow Dec. 12.

Hollis Street Theatre (Isaac B. Rich, manager).—"William Gillette, in 'The Admirable Crichton,' is now in his second week capacity business. Press and public unite in his praise. The engagement ends 26.

Colonial Theatre (Chas. Frohman, Rich & Harris, managers).—"Monday, Nov. 7, is the beginning of the third and final week of Fritz Scheff, in 'The Two Roses.' The engagement has been a successful one, and is one of the big successes of the local season. Richard Mansfield comes next week for a two weeks' stay, and indications point to a record breaking engagement in point of attendance.

Bowdoin Square Theatre (Lawrence McCarthy, manager).—"Donnan Thompson, in 'The Old Homestead,' opens his second successful week on Monday, 7. Mr. Thompson is always a welcome visitor to this city and the present engagement promises to be most prosperous. The George Primrose Minstrel Co. is booked for an early appearance at this house.

Majestic Theatre (Stair & Wilbur, managers).—"Wright Lorimer, in 'The Shepherd King,' ends sixth and last week of his engagement Saturday night, 12. Capacity houses have ruled all through the run. Ada Rehan, supported by Charles Richmond and a strong cast, comes 14 for two weeks. She will be seen in 'The Taming of the Shrew' and 'School for Scandal.'

Grand Opera House (Geo. W. Magee, manager).—"David Harum," with W. H. Turner in the title role, is the attraction this week. The piece has been seen in this city before at other houses, and will no doubt receive a hearty welcome at this one. Last week, "Wedded and Parted" had excellent business. Next week, Robert Fitzsimmons, in "A Fight for Love."

Castle Square Theatre (L. S. Deland, manager).—"The Professor's Love Story" is the stock company bill this week. The principals being Howell Hansel, Lillian Kemble, Leonora Bradley and De Witt Jennings. "When Knighthood Was in Flower" was well received the last two weeks. Next week, "The Dancing Girl" will be given.

THE BURGALAR AND THE CHILD.

THE LITTLE SAILOR SALES COHEN.

Acknowledged to be the Most Striking Pathetic Ballad in Years.

THE BOYS IN BLUE ARE RETURNING GRAY

A Patriotic Song that IS Patriotic. Intensely Dramatic Verses Set to a Thrilling, Martial Air. An Irresistible Melody that Will Live Forever. A Real March Hit.

ONE SWEET KISS.

Talk about a Waltz Song Hit! Just hear it, that's all! It has created a perfect whirlwind of applause wherever sung. Yours for the asking.

RESURRECTION MORN. IF YOU AND I HAD NEVER MET.

A Beautiful Sacred Song that is received with as much favor as the Famous "Holy City." A High Class, Operatic, Sentimental Ballad. Rather difficult, and suitable for advanced singers only.

Copies and Orchestration in any key will be furnished gratis to PROFESSIONAL SINGERS ONLY, on receipt of recent professional program. Others save your postage. It will pay you to visit our office when convenient. We have a bunch of good songs in preparation, which our pianists will gladly render for you.

PARKER MUSIC COMPANY,

140 WEST 42d STREET (Between Broadway and Sixth Ave.), NEW YORK CITY.

With the Bill Posters.

Notes from Local No. 4, Philadelphia.—

On Sunday, Oct. 30, the local extended a stag "smoker" to its members and friends, and the rooms were taken to their utmost capacity. The evening was one of the most pleasant that the alliance has so far experienced. Among the many visitors of other locals were Bro. William Roddy, representing "More to be Pitted than Scorred," a member of Local No. 1, who spoke very highly on the methods of this local in affairs of this kind, as it promotes a good feeling among the members socially as well as fraternally, and also as a good example for sister locals to follow. Bro. Hallstein, of Local No. 3, who is here looking after the interest of "The Lighthouse by the Sea" spoke in highest praise on the success of this local, in its new enterprise. Our old and good friend, Tom Byers, of the National Alliance, was on hand with his "Factory Girl," and volunteered his services in helping the local to entertain the many visitors, also rendered the latest songs. Proprietor John Germon, of the Lyceum Theatre, made an elaborate speech on the good qualities of the Alliance, and a progress that has been attained in a few short years since its organization. The local here would like to hear from H. H.

White and C. A. Hall at once. Our yearly ball will be held on Jan. 10, 1905, and all members on the road will please send in their names to S. C. Moss, business agent, at

Notes from Local No. 19, Wilmington,

Del.—On Sunday, Oct. 30, the members of this local had a meeting for the sole purpose of re-organizing, and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Daniel

McKenney, president; C. W. Brown, vice president; James Kane, financial secretary and treasurer; Harry Starr, corresponding secretary and business agent. Bro. John Hayes was accepted as a new member. The secretary would like to hear from all members of this local, who are requested to send in their dues by the next meeting, which will be held on Sunday, Nov. 13. President John

Supple and S. C. Moss, business agent of

Local No. 4, of Philadelphia, Pa., were on hand to assist in reorganizing this local,

and a vote of thanks was extended to both

members for their kind assistance. Bro. S.

C. Moss made a lengthy and very interesting speech on the benefits of the alliance, and also on the benefit of being a member of the same, and received in return a pledge from all members present to retain their membership in the alliance. From now on the local

will live up to all the rules governing the order. All members please correspond with

Harry Starr at once. Bro. John Scott, of Local No. 3, was a visitor.

Notes from Local No. 15, Springfield,

Mass.—Bro. Simons, who has been among the advance forces of Forepaugh & Sells

Brothers' Circus, has closed, and is now looking after the one sheet boards of the New Gilmore and Nelson Theatres. Joe Nihil is not of this local, who are requested to send in their dues by the next meeting, which will be held on Sunday, Nov. 13. President John

Supple and S. C. Moss, business agent of

Local No. 4, of Philadelphia, Pa., were on hand to assist in reorganizing this local,

and a vote of thanks was extended to both

members for their kind assistance. Bro. S.

C. Moss made a lengthy and very interesting

speech on the benefits of the alliance, and

also on the benefit of being a member of the same, and received in return a pledge from

all members present to retain their membership in the alliance. From now on the local

will live up to all the rules governing the

Under the Tents.

NOTES FROM THE MILES ORTON BIG SOUTH-

ERN SHOWS.—Our season opened at Suffolk,

Va., Oct. 15, under most favorable conditions.

We have been playing to the capacity of the tents, both afternoon and night, and business has been far above our expectations. At Rockingham, S. C., we followed the Robinson & Gentry Show, and showed to the capacities of the house. Today (Oct. 28), our first stand in Georgia is our banner day. The business in the South looks very promising.

Roster of the show: Norman and Myron

Orton, sole owners; Gus Fairbanks, manager; Lew Nichols, superintendent of slide shows; Philip Harris, charge of advance;

Myron Orton, equestrian director; Norman

Orton, treasurer; Mrs. Miles Orton, charge of front door; Martin Simon, leader of big show band; Charley West, leader of No. 2 band; Dick Richards, charge of canvas, with fifteen assistants; Curley, boss property man, with three assistants; Billy McDonald, chef, with four assistants; Jim Wade, boss hostler, with two assistants; Patty Orban, train master; Chas. Green, chandler man, with one assistant; Blackey, seat man. Performers: The Orton Family (five in number), double traps, bicycle high wire, slack wire, carrying act and principal act cloud swing, mule hurdle, menage act, riding dogs and the smallest aerialist on the stage; Clarence and

Ira Orton; Jacobs and McNeely, barrel jumpers and teen and hand balancing; Johnson and Brennan and Leon, knockabout clowns.

Side show: Lew Nichols, orator; Mrs. Lew

Nichols, mind reader; Mrs. Chas. Lovell, snake enchantress; Jack Kuhn, tattooed man;

Roag Bros. (Chas. and Peter), performing bears; the Gass workers and advance;

Nona's troupe of jubilee singers and cake walkers. Concert in charge of Ed. Brennan, headed by the Musical Brennans, followed by Johnson and Miss Nona, West and West, and the great wrestling bear, Sir

George. Frank McRobbin, Jr., is in charge of privileges. We carry eighty-five people and expect a long season South.

F. A. HODGSON is making his headquarters in THE CLIPPER BUILDING.

CONTRACTING PRESS AGENT CHARLES A.

WHEELER, of Ringling Bros' Circus, closed his sixth season with that organization Tuesday,

Nov. 2, at Corsicana, Tex. Mr. Wheeler has been re-engaged for season of 1905.

PUNCH WHEELER writes: "I send the menu for the annual banquet John Robinson gives his employees at the season's close. Show's last date is Nov. 14, at Tullahoma, Tenn.,

where the fifty-five cars are taken in two show trains direct to his winter quarters at Terrace Park, O., ten miles from Cincinnati. They are the finest circus quarters in the world; covers two hundred acres, have steam heated, electric lighted animal houses, two hotels, and two hundred and fifty men are employed all winter, as it requires five months of time to frame up for the regular summer tour."

NOTES FROM AL. F. WHEELER'S NEW

MODEL WINTER QUARTERS.—We are now

snuggly ensconced in our new and comfortable quarters, at Schenectady, N. Y., where active preparations are already under way for the season of 1905. New bodies are being built for all the baggage wagons and a new ticket vagon and dog cage will be added. Mr.

Wheeler has just returned from a trip through Central New York, where he purchased a team of beautiful pure white ponies, which will be trained for a tandem manage-

THE ROBERTS FAMILY, acrobats, closed with the Forepaugh-Sells Show at Charlotte,

N. C., on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Roberts.

SEIBEL BROTHERS will sell their show property at public auction Nov. 16, at Watertown, Wis.

MRS. IDA WASHBURN called at THE CLIP-

PER office on Nov. 7 and informed us that she was granted an absolute divorce from

NEW YORK CITY.

Review and Comment.—Good business prevailed last week at the local playhouses. The event of the week was the first metropolitan production, in English, of "Parsifal," at the New York Theatre, Oct. 31. The work was given an elaborate production and was unanimously praised by the press and public. Henry W. Savage, who was responsible for the production, proved himself to be indeed a resourceful impresario. He secured two complete casts of the principals for the work, all excellent singers, and two conductors, of whom Walter H. Rothwell proved to be a leader of exceptional ability. . . . At the Knickerbocker Theatre, on the same date, E. H. Sothern, Julia Marlowe and company presented "Much Ado About Nothing" as their second offering. . . . At the Fourteenth Street Theatre occurred another Monday night opening, Billy B. Van making his New York stellar debut in "The Erand Boy," a two act musical comedy, by George Totten Smith. . . . At the Third Avenue Theatre, on the same night, "A Struggle for Gold," a four act comedy drama, by W. B. Patton, received its first New York City presentation. . . . At the American Theatre, Wednesday night, Nov. 2, the French Comedy Co. presented "Bebe," a three act comedy, by Nacac and Hennequin. On Friday night, 4, the bill was changed to "La Gendre de M. Poirier," a four act comedy, by Emile Augier. On Saturday, matinee and night, 5, "Marie Jeanne," a five act drama, by Adolphe d'Ennery, was given. . . . At the Majestic Theatre, Thursday night, 3, "Bird Center," a three act comedy, based upon cartoons by Jno. T. McCutcheon, by Glen MacDonough, was given its New York City premier. A notice of the performance will be found elsewhere in this issue. . . . At the Irving Place Theatre, Friday night, 4, the German Stock Co. presented "William Tell." . . . The continued attractions for the week ending 5 were: "Parsifal," in English, at the New York; "Bird Center" at the Majestic; "The Cingalee" at the New Lyceum; "The School Girl," at the Herald Square; E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe at the Knickerbocker; Charles Hawtree at the Princess; "Higgle-Piggle" at the Weber Music Hall; Henry Miller at the Garrick; Mrs. Patrick Campbell at the New Amsterdam; "The Sho-Gun" at Wallack's; M. M. Schumann-Helk at "Love's Lottery," at the Broadway; David Warfield at Belasco's; Wm. H. Crane at the Criterion; "The College Widow" at the Garden; William Faversham at the Hudson; Mrs. Fiske and stock company at the Manhattan; "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" at the Savoy; "Piff! Paff! Puff!" at the Casino; John Drew at the Empire; the German Stock Co. at the Irving Place; "Checkers" at the Academy; the Rogers Bros. at the New Liberty; Otis Skinner at the Lyric; and Caselle's French Comedy Co. at the American, the four last named closing on that date. At Proctor's Fifth Avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-Fifth Street Theatres stock productions, with vaudeville between the acts, continued. . . . The one week attractions closing 5 were: Billy B. Van at the Fourteenth Street; "A Struggle for Gold" at the Third Avenue; "More to Be Pitied Than Scorned" at the Windsor; "The Virginian" at the Grand Opera House; "The Girl from Kay's" at the Harlem Opera House; "The Ninety and Nine" at the West End; "A Woman's Struggle" at the Metropolitan; and the Russell Brothers, in "The Female Detectives," at the Star. . . . Variety entertainment was furnished at Tony Pastor's, the Victoria, the Yorkville, Keith's Union Square, Proctor's Fifty-Eighth Street, the Circle, Proctor's Twenty-Third Street, the Dewey, Miner's Eighth Avenue, Miner's Bowery, the London, Hurlig & Seamon's and the Gotham. At Hurlig & Seamon's the usual long list of curios and vaudeville prevailed.

Lyric Theatre (Sam S. & Lee Shubert, managers).—At this house on Monday night, Nov. 7, Mmc. Gabrielle Rejane made her American reappearance and was given a hearty reception. She presented a double bill—"Amoureuse," a comedy, in three acts, by Georges de Porto-Riche, and "Lolotte," a one act comedy, by Melchior and Hialely. The three act play tells the story of a wife (Germaine) who is very much in love with her husband (Etienne) even though they have been married for eight years. His wife's love palls for Etienne and frequent quarrels result. Finally his words drive her to desperation and out of pique she is unfaithful to her marriage vows. Repentance comes to the husband and he takes her to his arms in full forgiveness. Mmc. Rejane, as Germaine, gave a most artistic performance. During the progress of the play she passed through many moods, giving each intelligent expression. Her consuming love for her Etienne was ever apparent, even when for the nonce she was forced to give way to feigning doubt, pique or revenge. She carried her audience from the start and fully deserved the approbation accorded her. She received good support from M. M. Dumény and Gorioux. The cast in full: Germaine, Mmc. Rejane; Catherine Villiers, Mmc. Suzanne Avril; Mmc. Henriette, Mmc. Cléry; Madame De Chazal, Mmc. Rose Lyon; Rose, Mmc. Alice Bernou; Etienne, M. Dumény; Pascal, M. Gorioux; Un Domestique, M. Duc; "Lolotte," which followed, has three principals—a society woman, an actress and a man who has been making love to both, each unaware that she has a rival. The society woman has an ambition to appear upon the stage and engages the actress to instruct her in the art. In this way the three meet unexpectedly, when the man's duplicity is made apparent, and the two women conclude upon a plan to make him suffer. Having no real affection for either, however, the man succeeds in turning the tables upon the fair conspirators, much to their discomfort. The play, Mmc. Rejane was called upon to do rather different work from that of the first play, but she was equally pleasing and her support was excellent. The cast was: Lolotte, Mmc. Rejane; La Baronne, Mmc. Suzanne Avril; De Croisillew, M. Dumény; Un Domestique, M. Eosman. The double bill will be given Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The remainder of the week will be given up to "La Passerelle."

Hudson Theatre (Henry B. Harris, manager).—Wm. Faversham began his ninth and last week, in "Letty," Nov. 7, to good business. Ethel Barrymore, in "Sunday," follows 15.

Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—"The Henrietta" is this week's revival, with Edwin Arden as Bertie, which he played delightfully. His play and his acting were equally disarming. Douglas Flint did creditable work as the elder Vanalystine, and Isabelle Everson did well. Mabel Addison won hearty applause for her hysterical scene, and Gertrude Berkeley added another to her list of successes. H. Dudley Hawley and all the others scored well. The cast: Nicholas Vanalystine, Douglas Flint; Dr. Parke Walawright, George Howell; Nicholas Vanalystine Jr., Wallace Erskine; Bertie Vanalystine, Edwin Arden; Lord Arthur Trelawny, H. Dudley Hawley; The Rev. Dr. Murray Hilton, William Herbert; Watson Flint, George Friend; Musgrave, Gerald Griffin; Mrs. Cornelia Opydyke, Isabelle Everson; Mrs. Rose Vanalystine, Mabel Addison; Agnes, Marion Berg; Andy Mary Trelawny, Gertrude Berkeley. In the vaudeville: "The Queen's Fan," a revival of a bright musical bit, with Oriska Worden, Adèle Archer and Jessamine Child; Bedini and Arthur, in their capital act; Wolf and Arthur, in a clever sketch; Ashland and his comedienne; Johnny Hoy, comedian; Gilbert and Burt, the female drummers; Castellet and Hall, in their excellent act, and the motion pictures.

Liberty Theatre (Klaw & Erlanger, managers).—On Monday night, Nov. 7, George M. Cohan returned to the city as an individual star, in his own musical comedy, in three acts, entitled "Little Johnny Jones," under the management of Sam H. Harris. The piece was first presented at Parson's Theatre, Hartford, Conn., on Oct. 10 last, and told of a conspiracy to ruin the American jockey, Johnny Jones, who is ruled off the track after the English Derby, and loses his sweetheart, only to find her in "Frisco's China Town" as a prostitute. The story is slight, but it is sufficient for Cohan's purpose. He has written a number of good songs and supplied the work with witty lines, the first act abounding in the latter, together with funny situations. The reception of the play and the four members of the Cohan family was generous, as was that of the others of the cast. Tom Lewis, as The Unknown, easily took first honors, his every utterance, entrance and move calling forth roars of hearty laughter. George Cohan made his most marked impression in the selection of the song, "Life's a Funny Proposition," though his work all through was good. At the end of the second act he responded to repeated demands for a speech. Jerry J. Cohan, the good old fellow, the gambler, Anthony Anstey; Helen E. Cohan, was charmingly simple as Mrs. Kenworth, and as Goldie Gates and her two disguises, Ethel Levey won much applause; J. Bernard Dyllin, as the song, was dignified and carried the part to success; Sam H. Ryan, dider for good Irish character work as McDee; Donald Brian looked, acted and sang well as Henry Haggood; C. J. Harrington and William Seymour, as Captain Squirry and the Bell Boy, respectively, did some good and energetic dancing; Truly Shattuck, as Royal reception, and as Florabelle Fly won new laurels, being bright, witty and vivacious, and looking well. The principal song hit, and those which will probably reach the street, are: "Up in the 'Anson," "Good Bye," "Good Bye," "Give My Regards to Broadway" and "Life's a Funny Proposition." The scenery was good and the costumes excellent, the chorus well drilled and hard working. The play goes down a lash and will undoubtedly be a winner. The cast: Anthony Anstey, Jerry J. Cohan; Sing Song, J. Bernard Dyllin; Timothy D. McGe, Sam J. Ryan; Henry Haggood, Donald Brian; The Unknown, Tom Lewis; Jenkins, Captain Squirry; C. J. Harrington; Bell Boy, Wm. Seymour; Inspector Perkins, Charles Blochmann; Stevens, Joseph Leslie; Chung Fung, Charles Stevens; Hung Chung, Fred Williams; Johnny Jones, Geo. M. Cohan; Mrs. Andrew Kenworth, Helen E. Cohan; Florabelle Fly, Truly Shattuck; Bessie, Edith Tyler; Goldie Gates, Rosalie F. Ruchette and Earl of Bloomsbury, Ethel Levey.

New York Theatre (Klaw & Erlanger, managers).—On Tuesday night, Nov. 7, the alternate cast of Mr. Savage's company sang "Parsifal" in English and another conductor led the orchestra, the latter being Moritz Grimm, who conducted with much feeling. Mmc. Hanna Mara was satisfactory in the role of Kundry. Mmc. Mara possesses a voice of large range and good quality and used it to good advantage. M. M. MacLennan, who sang the title role, was also effective in his singing, his voice being of excellent quality and well trained. His acting, however, lacked naturalness and spontaneity. Franz Egenleff gave a most capital performance as Anton, his singing and acting being of high class. Otty Cranstoun, as Gurnemann, and J. Parker Combs, as Klingsor, deserve praise for their singing. All the singers were new to this city. The chorus was the same as on the previous night and was excellent. The cast: Mmc. Hanna Mara; Parsifal, Francis MacLennan; Anton, Franz Egenleff; Gurnemann, Otty Cranstoun; Klingsor, J. Parker Combs; Titore, Robert Kent Parker; Voice, Florence Wickham; The Grail Bearer, Eva Wallace; M. M. MacLennan changed the time of the commencement of the performance night of Nov. 2. The curtain now rises at 7.15, the intermissions are shortened and the performance ends at 11.35. The curtain goes down at 11 o'clock. The week began Nov. 7, to good attendance. The engagement closes 21 and will be followed by "Woodland," another of Mr. Savage's productions.

Fourteenth Street Theatre (J. Wesley Rosenquest, manager).—The house held a big audience on Monday night, Nov. 7, to welcome Andrew Mack, in the first New York City production of an Irish drama, entitled "The Way to Kenmare." The play is by Edward E. Rose, and was first produced at Stamford, Conn., on Oct. 1 of the present year. It is in four acts, which are full of action, and the lines given to Mr. Mack and his company are bright. The story hangs upon the lost proofs of Dan Maguire's mother's marriage and the search and difficulties in getting possession of them furnish the plot and gives to Mr. Mack opportunity of doing the best work of his professional career. He also has the best supporting company that has appeared with him here. The engagement closes for four weeks and it is safe to predict much success for Mr. Mack and "The Way to Kenmare." He sang four new and pleasing songs, which were encored many times. They are written in Mr. Mack's happiest vein, and will likely become very popular. Below the cast in full: Dan Maguire, Andrew Mack; Captain Clement Fairley, Hugo Tolland; Roy Donald, Wm. J. Townsend; The Earl of Kenmare, George W. Deyo; Bentley Harden, Myron Callee; Baron Gustavus Hergogengarten, Richard Gordon; Keel, Edward J. McCracken; Con O'Neill, Luke Martin; Mulkenan Hogan, Eddie Heron; Patrick O'Shale, Thomas E. Jackson; McShane, John Napier; Jerry E. Constance; Rose Donald, Margaret Robinson; Miss Honoria Malone, Bernice Mack; Berline, Madeline; Gertrude Tolland; Julia, Mae Stevenson; Executive staff for Rich & Harris; Edward W. Steele, acting manager; Robert Mack, business manager; Luke Martin, stage manager; Wm. P. Brown, musical director; Robert McKee, master mechanic; John Frees, properties; Clarence Sanborn, electrician.

Savoy Theatre (Frank McKee, manager).—Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch began its fourth week of good business Nov. 7. Garden Theatre (Henry W. Savage, manager).—"The College Widow" began Nov. 7 its eighth week of capacity business.

Proctor's Fifty-Eighth Street Theatre (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—For Election Week, beginning Monday, Nov. 7, high class vaudeville was offered, the strength of the bill serving to crowd the house in every part by an audience that was thoroughly appreciative. Edward Harrigan, supported by Robert Fitzgerald and Alice Graham, recalled old Harrigan and gave a one act comedy, by himself, entitled "Daddy McGlone, Author." The act scoring: Henri French was another turn to win approval, his clever specialties finding favor; James Thornton monologued in his usual taking manner, the many fooling points he made being quickly grasped and applauded by the audience. Others were: Greene and Werner, in "Babes in the Jungle"; West and Van Sicien, in "The Musical Gymnasium"; Irene La Tour and her company, in "The Musical Gymnasium"; Collins and Hart, eccentricities. The motion pictures are continued. Sunday's concert, 6, attracted the usual paying crowds. Next week, "The Heart of Maryland" will be presented by the David Belasco Co.

Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—John Rice and Sally Cohen head this week's bill, and on Nov. 7 their clever acting brought "All the World Loves a Lover" to a big laughing success. Edward Harrigan, assisted by Robert Fitzgerald and Alice Graham, gave a one act comedy, by himself, entitled "Daddy McGlone, Author." Pastor's Theatre (Tony Pastor, manager).—This popular playhouse was well filled Nov. 7 to witness a bill headed by Reno and Richards, in their well known and clever acrobatic comedy act. They would improve the act by cutting out the excess horse play at the finish. Home and Ferguson appeared in their melange of fun, song and dance, and won much applause; Martin and Max Millian, in their eccentric illusions, caused rounds of laughter. They have a very clean, enjoyable act, and work well and quickly. William Cahill has materially improved his act since last heard, and the result is pleasing; Madge Fox, slip-slap lady; Delphino and Delmore, grotesque musical act; the Fraser Trio, in their dances; Lavine and Leonard, the automobillist; Kennedy and James, "Doctor Daffy"; Golden and Hughes, black face specialties; Hunter and Mooney, dancing club jugglers; Max Winslow, con shouter; the wandering artist and the vitaphone illud of the moon pictures.

Keith's Theatre (E. F. Albee, general manager).—Claude Gillingwater and his capable little company head the bill here this week, in his one act sketch, "The Wrong Man." Besides being well enacted it is one of the best sketches seen here in a long time. Marcel's Bas Reliefs hold an important position of the bill with success, and the bill also includes: Press Eldridge, in his black face monologue; Frank Gardner and Lottie Vincent, in "An Idyl of the Links"; Nichols Sisters, in their songs; Mr. and Mrs. Allison, in "Minnie from Minnesota"; Vera King, in songs and stories; Harper, Desmond and Bailey, assisted by Walter Robinson, in songs and dances; H. V. Fitzgerald character changes; Will Cunningham and Mabel Lord, singing and dancing duo; Great Marinellas, gymnasts; Kennedy and Quatrelli, jugglers, and the American biograph.

Circle Theatre (Percy G. Williams, manager).—The usual big Monday audience filled this house Nov. 7, when the following bill for the week opened its first presentation. It is headed by the Imperial Japanese Guards, in a military drill and wall scaling. The extra feature of the bill is Gustave Kerker's musical satire, entitled "Very Grand Overture," which received favorable commendation in these columns recently. The programme also includes: Dolan and Lennarr, in their sketch, "A High-Toned Burglar"; Rice and Prevost, comedy acrobats; Lew Sully, monologue; Violet Dale, comedienne; Herbert's dogs, Chas. F. Seamon, in music and comedy; Mons. Albany, Parisian; fantasist; the Major Sisters, novelty dancers, and the vitaphone.

Yorkville Theatre (Meyer R. Blumberg, manager).—This new house, now in its second week, has been successful with its high class vaudeville. The bill for this week includes: Robert Hilliard and Co., presenting the dramatic sketch, "973"; Helena Fredericks, soprano; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Barry, in "A Skin Game"; the Three Westons, George W. Day, Cartwell and Harris and others.

Grand Opera House (John H. Springer, manager).—Joseph Santley began Nov. 7 a week's engagement in "From Rags to Riches," and everything points to a good week's business. The piece is well staged and the cast is excellent. The cast includes: Edward Montgomery, Joseph Cusack; Robert Brown, Jean Clarendon; Herbert Bostwick, Frank Norton; Charles Montgomery, Carroll Daly; Bella Laurence Santley; Mike Dooley, Sidney Clarendon; Chinese Sam, Joseph Cusack; Handsome Harry, William Lane; Louis Jean Clarendon; Harry, Tom Mansfield; Mother Murphy, Ollie Irving; Albert Cooper, Harold Vushby; Gertrude, Anna R. Risher; Flossie, Florence Weston, and Ned, Joseph Santley. Next week, Richard Carle, in "The Tenderfoot."

Miner's Eighth Avenue Theatre (Edwin D. Miner, manager).—Robbie's Knickerbockers opened a week's engagement Nov. 7, to a splendid house, and furnished an excellent evening's entertainment. "Relly's Speech," a musical comedy, in two acts, formed the bill, and it was liberally interspersed with vaudeville numbers, including the Musical Babies, Church City Quartet, the Amatos, La Danse de Surprise and the Jewels. The singing and acting were excellent. In the afternoon Mr. Robbie took the entire company around the city on a big sight seeing automobile, and they paid their respects to the different newspapers. The cast: Tim Riley, Frank Finney; Cordelia Herby, Margie Wong; Lida Riley, Clara Hillsdale; Mike Murphy, Sam Green; Spuds, Oscar Lewis; Chub, William F. O'Sullivan; Percy Featherbrim, William Patton; Miss Con, Marie Richmond; Giovanni, A. Amato; Uva Beant, Myrtle Becker; Stela Cookoo, Lady Starr; Ina, Wanda; Corinne David; May Mayne, Emma McVey. Next week, Harry Bryant's Extravaganza.

London Theatre (James H. Curtin, manager).—The Moonlight Maids provide an excellent bill this week. It includes "The Man Who Wasn't There," a comedy, by Currier, Mills and Burns, Carrie Ezler and Corrie Webb, the MacBanns, an exceptionally clever team of jugglers, and "Chili Sauce." Next week, the Gay Masqueraders.

Miner's Theatre (Edwin D. Miner, manager).—The Vanity Fair Burlesques present the following programme this week: "Ladies' Night at Relly's," Ward and Raymond, the Clemens Brothers, Held and Buckley, Imhoff, Conn and Corinne, Henry and Horn and "The Female Drummer." Joe Bostain is an added attraction. Next week, the Utopians.

American Theatre (Klaw, Erlanger & Wells, managers).—David Higgins appeared Monday, Nov. 7, in the first New York City production of "His Last Dollar," a play, in five acts, by himself and Baldwin G. Cooke. It deals with the efforts of a millionaire, a former jockey, to win the woman of his heart, outwitting villainy in the form of his most trusted friend, and see that justice is done to all. David Higgins, as Joe Braxton, the former jockey, gave a well rounded and sympathetic performance, bringing out the strong points in a manner most acceptable. He was by far the best work of the evening. Eleanor Montell, as Eleanor Downs, was delightful in her ingenue work, but failed to reach the climax in the third act. Thomas Reynolds, as Kaufman, did some very good work; Katherine Miller, as Viola Grayson, gave a conscientious performance; Isabel O'Madigan, as Mrs. Giles, was sympathetic, and portrayed the feelings of the banker's wife well. The others of the cast were more or less adequate. The play was beautifully staged and reflected great credit on the management. The cast: Joe Braxton, David Higgins; Tom Linson, W. Burt Cartwright; Kaufman, Thomas Reynolds; Ned Penn, Wm. Belfort; Clarence Lonsdale, Chas. F. Seamon; La Vally, Allen Biddle; Johnnie Hill, Wm. E. Gladstone; O'Connell, O. Frank; Bob Brockel, Guy F. Evans; Mark Hood, A. V. Sneed; Old Sport, F. T. Owens; Jim, C. E. Rathburn; Tout, W. F. Petrie; Judge, W. W. Wilcox; Horse Dealer, Charles La Vally; Taylor, Taylor; Eleanor Downs, Eleanor Montell; Viola Grayson, Katherine Miller; Mrs. Giles, Isabel O'Madigan; Alicia, Maud Alice Lee; Julia, Emma Salvatore; Baron Rothschild, Baby Reynolds; Little Abraham, Baby Nagle; On Wednesday evening, Nov. 2, "Bebe," a comedy, in three acts, by Nacac and Hennequin, was presented by the French Comedy Co., to a medium sized but very appreciative audience. The piece has been given here before, and is a typical French comedy of the past decade. Gaston, the grown up "baby," a remarkably sophisticated youth, was excellently played by M. Maury, his buoyant spirits carrying the play far on the road to success. M. Perrin did splendidly with the thankless part of the daren, baby's father, and the same may be said of Mmc. Schuller, as the mother. M. Dorian appeared to great advantage as Kernanigous, a sort of country cousin; M. Dane created a most excellent impression in the eccentric character of Pettillon, always in the way; Mmc. Sarre, as Antoinette, was easily in the lead among the ladies; her natural work; Mmc. Derlange was pleasing and easy as Diane; Mmc. Derosche, as Aurelie, was vivacious and helped the fun along; the other members of the cast were good in their various parts. The play borders on the farcical in many places and in the hands of an inferior company could not be accepted. The can-can, in the second act, was delightfully done, and could not have offended any one. The cast: Le Baron d'Algre, M. Perrin; Gaston, M. Maury; Kernanigous, M. Dorian; Pettillon, M. Dane; Arthur de Beauver, M. Desplas; Le Colfeur, M. Vallee; Un Domestique, M. Chalais; La Baronne d'Algre, Mmc. Schuller; Diane, Mmc. Derlange; Antoinette, Mmc. Sarre; Mmc. Derosche, Mmc. Rosita; Mmc. Desplas; "La Gendre de M. Poirier," a comedy, in four acts, by Emile Augier, was given its only performance Friday evening, 4, having been presented here several times before by other companies. The play sports some amusing situations, though lacking action, and there are few long speeches. M. Perrin, as Poirier, was given an enthusiastic greeting, and his splendid work brought several curtain calls at the end of the second act. It was his final appearance, and the decision in his behalf at the close was loud and long. M. Charny, always dignified and scholarly, was most interesting as Gaston, and gave one of his best performances. M. Cosset, as Hector, was sympathetic at all times, and M. Pettillon presented a most amusing scene. M. Perrin in their humorously irascible scenes. Mmc. Arnaud, as Antoinette, practically the only female part, was equal to the small amount of emotional work which fell to her lot, though having rather a monotonous delivery at other times. The other members were excellent in minor parts and showed the result of their careful training. The cast in full: Poirier, M. Perrin; Gaston, M. Charny; Hector, M. Cosset; Verdelot, M. Pettillon; Vatel, M. Roze; Chavassus, M. Dubert; Un Portier, M. Mante; Un Domestique, M. Chalais; Antoinette, Mmc. C. Arnaud; Une Femme de Chambre, Mmc. Danza; "Marie Jeanne," a drama, in five acts, by Adolphe d'Ennery, was presented matinee and night, Nov. 5, the latter being the closing performance of this excellent company. The house was well filled by a representative and wildly enthusiastic French audience, which availed itself of the many opportunities to demonstrate its appreciation of the excellent work of the entire cast. The play was easily and tireless at times, is interesting when well presented, as it was on this occasion. Mmc. Renot, in the title role, surpassed herself and won unstinted approbation through excellent emotional work. She ranked easily with the best known actresses of today in that line. M. Dulac created a most favorable impression throughout, giving a more finished and rounded performance than heretofore. M. Dane, as Remy, was delightfully amusing; he part afforded the audience with the somnolence of the other characters. M. Raymond gave a finished performance as the oily and villainous Applane, adding to his well won laurels; M. Beranger upheld the dignity of Theobald well; Mmc. Arnaud lacked sympathy as Stéphanie, failing to impress upon her hearers the goodness of heart of the rich woman. The other members of the cast were fully adequate. After the second act M. Charny, the stage director, appeared before the curtain to read a bit written letter of thanks to the public from M. Cazelles, the manager, stating therein, that following their engagement in New Orleans they would return for a supplementary season, an announcement which gained much applause. The engagement has been a triumph, and that in the Spring should be remunerative. The cast: Bertrand, M. J. Dulac; Remy, M. Dane; Theobald de Bussieres, M. Beranger; Applane, M. Raymond; Le Docteur, M. Joubert; Guillaume, M. Mazy; Berlinguer, M. Desplas; Grosmeche, M. Pettibon; Un Indirleur, M. Vallee; Un Domestique, M. Chalais; Marie Jeanne, Mmc. D. Renot; Sophie de Bussieres, Mmc. C. Arnaud; Catherine, M. D'Hany; Marguerite, Mmc. Darthen; Charlotte, Mmc. Derosche.

Victoria Theatre (Oscar Hammerstein, manager).—The bill for week of Nov. 7 includes: Della Fox, Frank Bush, Florence Troupe, Hewitt, Klein, Ott Bros. and Nelson, Midgeley and Carlisle, Meredith Sisters, Josephine Gasman and Co., Prof. Allen and his monkey, the Great Lappage and the vitaphone.

Third Avenue Theatre (Martin J. Dixon, manager).—"The Wayward Son," a four act comedy drama, by Neil Twomey, drew fair sized houses Monday, 7. It was presented with the following cast: Tom Linson, Neil Twomey; John Drouse, Bert Carber; Ralph Hanford, J. Fitzpatrick; Sleepy Bill, Wm. L. Payne; Heinle Schultz, Edgar J. Shoolley; Mike Casey, Frank M. Allen; Bob Wilson, Arthur Young; Frederick Jones, Geo. Edwards; Martha, Bernard; Florence Johnson; Tossie, Dicks; Alice Nichols; Mrs. Ralph Hanford, Viola Keene; Gwan, Little Edwina Raynora. Next week, "The Stain of Guilt."

Criterion Theatre (Charles Frohman, manager).—Wm. H. Crane, in "Business is Business," began Nov. 7 his eighth week of business. "The Rich Mrs. Rep-ton," follows 14.

Knickerbocker Theatre (Al. Hayman, manager).—E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe began their second week in "Much Ado About Nothing," to excellent business. "Hamlet" follows 14.

Knickerbocker Theatre (Al. Hayman, manager).—E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe began their second week in "Much Ado About Nothing," to excellent business. "Hamlet" follows 14.

Knickerbocker Theatre (Al. Hayman, manager).—E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe began their second week in "Much Ado About Nothing," to excellent business. "Hamlet" follows 14.

Last week we promised to have MAUD'S PICTURE in this issue of THE CLIPPER. She is terribly "PUT OUT" about it, and I suppose YOU ARE also, but without fail MAUD'S PICTURE WILL BE IN THE CLIPPER NEXT WEEK

CHORUS:
Let's all go up to Maud's, we'll have a jubilee,
Make love to all her sisters, boys, but please leave Maud for me.
Her Ma don't mind the noise, her Dad's one of the boys,
If you're a bit handy, you'll be all the candy—
Let's all go up to Maud's.

Bijou Theatre (Henry R. Sire, manager).—May Irwin signalled her return to the local stage on Nov. 7, after a retirement of two years, and the receipts she received proved how dear she is to our public, and how anxious they are to assure her of their reality. "Mrs. Black is Back," a three act farce, by George V. Hobart, is her present offering, and on the above date it was given its first production in this city. Its initial rendering having occurred at Poll's, Waterbury, Conn., Sept. 26, Mr. Hobart has contributed nothing of a novel nature in this piece, nor has he gone to any deep well of humor for his material, which gives the players a hard task in their efforts to extract fun. That they succeeded in amusing was due to their own attainments. The story concerns the tribulations of Mrs. Black, whose second husband is a stickler for the truth, and who has been told that his wife is seven years younger than she really is. Mrs. Black's seventeen year old son has never been seen by the second husband, who imagines him to be a boy of ten. The vortex of his life into which Mrs. Black is plunged in order to keep her husband and son from meeting furnishes the point upon which the complications are made to swing. May Irwin, looking younger than ever, and with her beaming presence just as welcome as in the days of her greatest triumphs, got more than her share of fun out of her lines and sang some coon songs with all the irresistible charm that makes her the greatest in her line. Her success was a whirlwind one, and the encores she received were numerous and hearty. A. S. Lipman did clever work as Mr. Black, and Edgar Atchison Ely did capital as the son, his songs with Miss Irwin being excellently done. John G. Sparks made a funny Irish valet, and May Donohue scored a big success as the cook. Jane Purby and Francis Gordon also scored. The cast: Mrs. Black, May Irwin; Professor Black, A. S. Lipman; Emily Mason, Jane Purby; Priscilla Black, Frances Gordon; Jack Dangerfield, Edgar Atchison-Ely; Larry McManus, John G. Sparks; Don Pedro De-gazette, Nick Long; Tom Larkey, Charles Lane; Major Thorne, Arthur Sanders; Bramley Bush, John Johnson; Hank, Roland Carter; Lizzie, May Donohue; Peter Patter, Charles Church; Sarah Dale, Vera Hall; Ellen Leighton, Maryland Tyson; Elizabeth Morgan, Lillie Lawton; Caroline Patterson, Madeline Anderson; Amelia Brant, Kate Gotthold; Agnes Hamilton, Dorothy Banes.

Huber's Museum (John H. Anderson, manager).—The bill at this house this week, opening Monday, Nov. 7, was: "The Human Reservoir," Chief Running Elk, Indian strong man; Grace Gilbert, bearded lady; Capt. Chas. Austin, midge policeman; Chaucer Morlan, fat man; Young Kruger, magic, and Marie Lill, the fat girl. The bill was a success with an all star bill, gave their regular performances in the theatre.

Daily Theatre (Daniel Frohman, manager).—"The Cingalese" began its third week and last fortnight Nov. 7.

Garrick Theatre (Charles Frohman, manager).—Henry Miller, in "Joseph Entangled," keeps on to excellent business, commencing his fifth week Nov. 7.

Broadway Theatre (A. W. Dingwall, manager).—The Schenck Theatre began its sixth week and last fortnight Nov. 7, playing to large houses.

Princess Theatre (Sam S. Shubert, manager).—Chas. Hawtree began his fourth and last week, in "A Message from Mars," Nov. 7.

Manhattan Theatre (Harrison Gray Fiske, manager).—Mrs. Fiske, in "Becky Sharp," began her eighth successful week Nov. 7.

New Lyceum Theatre (Daniel Frohman, manager).—Mrs. Gilbert, in "Granny," began her third and last week Nov. 7. Charles Wyndham, in "David Garrick," follows 14.

Herald Square Theatre (Charles Frohman, manager).—Edna May, in "The School Girl," commenced her third week Nov. 7. Business to capacity. The engagement has been extended indefinitely.

THE PRINCIPALS OF THE KLAU & ERLANGER COMEDY CO., the permanent musical stock organization which Klaw & Erlanger will maintain at the Liberty Theatre, following the engagement of George M. Cohan, in "Little Johnny Jones," have been called for rehearsals at the New Amsterdam Theatre, Nov. 7. This company, which will be headed by Peter F. Dailey and Fay Templeton, includes Joe Coyne, Virginia Earle, Lee Harrison, Louis Kelso, Charles M. MacDonald, Lillian Hudson and a chorus of fifty people.

Klaw & Erlanger have arranged with E. S. Willard to present "Lucky Durham" at the Knickerbocker Theatre the latter part of January. This play was written by the late Wilson Barrett, and was being presented by him in London at the time of his death. Klaw & Erlanger secured the American rights from the Wilson Barrett estate.

FREDERICK ZACHENBERG, managing director of the Apollo Theatre, Berlin, and the originator of the Grigolletti Dying Ballet, arrived in New York last week to supervise the novel effects that will be introduced in this ballet in connection with Klaw & Erlanger's production of "Humpty Dumpty," at the New Amsterdam Theatre, Nov. 14.

MESSES. HAMLIN, MITCHELL & FIELDS last week leased for ten years the property at the northwest corner of Broadway and Forty-fifth Street, where the Sire Brothers on Aug. 20, 1901, began the erection of a theatre. The foundations of the playhouse were laid and a part of the iron work was erected, when litigation stopped the work. A large force of workmen are now building operations this week, and it is planned to open the playhouse Sept. 1, 1905.

LORETTA M. HEALY, who for the last three or four years has been connected with the F. F. Proctor stock companies, was married Oct. 25, to Albert S. Howson, son of the well known musical director, Frank Howson, and nephew of John and Emma Howson, once famous in operatic circles.

EMANUEL M. ("MANNY") FRIEND, the well known lawyer, who was known to many professionals, died suddenly at his home in this city on Nov. 1, from heart disease.

PROF. JACOB SALVO, who was musical director of "Across the Rockies" Co., which has closed, is now in this city.

Wallack's Theatre (Mrs. Theo. Moss, manager).—"The Sho-Gun" began its fifth week Nov. 7.

Harlem.—At the Harlem Opera House (Alex. Lichtenstein, manager).—"The Yankee Consul," with Raymond Hitchcock, was presented for the first time in Harlem Nov. 7, before a large audience. Next week, Mrs. Patrick Campbell.

West End (George A. Blumenthal, manager).—"The Rays, in a musical satire, "Dona the Pike," opened to a big house 7, and were warmly received. The play received on that date its New York premier, and proved exceedingly humorous and very well adapted to the style of fun for which Johnny and Emma Ray are famous. There is plenty of action in the piece, many ludicrous situations and ample opportunity for specialties. The audience plainly liked it, and fairly showered favors upon the stars, who were never funnier. The scenic equipment is handsome and the costumes are fine. The show evidently gave great satisfaction, and the Rays will have a big week. Next week, Eugene Blair, in "Iris."

Metropolitan (Henry Rosenberger, manager).—"The Sensational Melodrama, "Her Mad Marriage," with all its thrilling scenes and incidents, packed this house 7. Next week, George W. Monroe.

Star (Wm. T. Keogh, manager).—"Tracked Around the World," received its first New York hearing 7. Its story concerns the tracking of the villain around the world, through many strange and wicked localities, and highly sensational incidents naturally resulted. There was every evidence given by the opening night audience of favor for the play, which is a worthy one in its class, replete with thrills and strong in melodramatic interest. Next week, "Why Girls Leave Home."

Brooklyn.—"ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH STREET THEATRE" (J. Austin Fydes, general manager).—"Hearts Aflame" is the stock offering this week, and greatly pleased the audiences at both performances 7. The vaudeville offerings are up to the standard, with the following people: George Wilson, Grace and Burnett, Barto and Lafferty, Maxsmith Duo and new moving pictures.

HURTING AND SEAMON'S MUSIC HALL (Ben Hurting, manager).—"The usual Monday crowd turned out 7, and showed their approval of the offerings. The bill included: Dan McAvoy and his five society belles, Grace Emmett and company, Smedley Sketch Club, Caron and Herbert, Quigley Brothers, Robert Troupe, Anna Kenwick and Rastus and Banks.

GOTHAM (Sullivan & Kraus, managers).—"The Blue Ribbon Girls came from a down town house and were warmly received by a large audience 7. That they will have a successful week goes without saying. Next week, Robie's Knickerbocker Burlesquers.

OLYMPIA (Fred H. Schaefer, manager).—"John Grievous Burlesque Co. continues. Their offering this week is "Our Minnie, or the Maid of the Bronx." The olio presents Arthur Yule, Carr and Lloyd, Barrington and Martelle, Morris and Bowen, and Keene, the juggler.

ORPHEUM will open Nov. 8, under the management of Gottlieb, Rothstein & Latimer, as a Jewish theatre, with "Bilmele."

Brooklyn.—"At the Montauk (Isabel Sina Hecht, manager).—"The Girl from Kay's" Nov. 7-12. "The Tenderfoot," last week, and "The Tenderfoot," next week, "The County Chairman."

Hohner HARMONICAS

For the past fifty years have been universally recognized as being the BEST MADE, and are preferred by professionals everywhere, which is proven by the numerous unsolicited endorsements received from all parts of the world.

THE ORGANOLA

Is a splendid novelty to be used in vaudeville. It consists of a solo mouth organ, nearly chromatical, attached to two sets of reeds, controlled by a double row of valves, which render chords and bass notes, both minor and major. Has the same effect as a concertina. Instruction book goes with each instrument.

Hohner ACCORDIONS

Are made of the best materials which skill and years of experience can obtain, thoroughly seasoned wood, to stand any climate, the finest reeds, clear and resonant as a bell. "Just as good as the Hohner Harmonicas," is the best proof of their superior quality.

The "Hohner" Instruments are endorsed by Wm. H. Burke, the original harmonica wonder, who was the first to introduce this instrument and its possibilities upon the stage. During his professional career of the past 25 years he has continually used the "Hohner" Harmonicas.

STERLING AND VON TILZER HAVE GOT ANOTHER BIG BOMBSHELL HIT.

"COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME"

Any man, woman or child in the singing profession that can walk out on a stage, can make the hit of their career with this number. Just sit down and think of the way you can work this up; the things you can do with it; the countless ways it can be used, and try if you can to think of an act that couldn't use it. Clean and catchy, and absolutely the most available song that was ever issued anywhere. And if you want to do a neat little dance with it—alone or as a feature with a partner or a bunch behind you—it's good for that too. The quickest of all the quick hits that we have handed you, and in all our experience we never saw a song that was so useful in all branches of the show business. There isn't an act that uses songs that can't use this one, for it is good for anyone, from the prima donna down to the parodist. Now, then, if you know what a golden opportunity is, send for a copy of this song.

"HAVE YOU SEEN MAGGIE RILEY?"

"COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME"

It gives us the greatest pleasure of our career to say "we told you so," for this song has done all that we expected of it, in spite of the predictions of the croakers and in spite of the imitations that were calculated to mislead the performer. Wherever sung uproarously greeting has been the reward of the singer using this little novelty Irish waltz song, and it is going bigger and bigger all the time. Maybe you haven't had the chance to hear it sung, and you don't quite believe all we say. Very well, put it on, that's all we ask, and you'll know the answer for yourself. By HARRY VON TILZER and ANDREW B. STERLING.

"WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUMPKIN, MAGGIE DEAR"

"COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME"

At present there is no bigger record of rustic ballad successes than that of HARRY VON TILZER, who, with ANDREW B. STERLING, has written ninety-nine per cent. of the successful songs of this nature which you have sung in the past, and his skill as a producer has increased yearly, till now he stands alone as a writer of rustic songs. This particular one would have made him famous if all the others had been failures.

The best slides that money can buy constantly on hand at the uniform price of $5.00 per set.

"COAX ME" "ALEXANDER" "COAX ME"

It has been truly said, that many reputations have been made by songs, and it is a fact that the only difference between a bad singing act and a good one is, in most cases, the difference in the song used. In other words, if you sing songs that the people like, your act goes well, and vice versa. The people like "Alexander," as hundreds of professionals who are using it can testify. How about YOUR audiences? Are you pleasing them with "Alexander?" If not, why? By HARRY VON TILZER and ANDREW B. STERLING.

"GONE! GONE! GONE!" "MY PRETTY LITTLE KICKAPOO"

Joe Hollender had a host of friends before he wrote the above coon song, but if you can see the letters that he and we get you'd think that the whole army of singers were under obligations to him. There's a reason for this—it's a bully good song.

"Yes, it's an Indian song, and it's a good one. HARRY VON TILZER and ANDREW B. STERLING put in extra hard licks on this number, and the results show it. I don't think we need to tell you just what it's good for. The title indicates that. But it is far ahead of anything that you have been offered before."

"COAX ME" "DOWN AT THE BABY STORE" "COAX ME"

This is one of our illustrated songs, with the best slides at $5.00 a set, that you ever bought. The song itself is more than good, it's the very best. A plaintive, appealing story with heart stirring music, such as only HARRY VON TILZER can write.

"DOWN WHERE THE SWANEE RIVER FLOWS"

"COAX ME" "COAX ME" "COAX ME"

Another one of those ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER's pastoral ballads, that is the surest thing in a singer's repertoire. Being made of good material, it never wears out, and although published some months, an already extensive hit. It is as good in all localities as it ever was, and in new ones will be just as warmly greeted. Slides for this one, too, at $5.00 per set.

THE CLIPPER SHAKSPEARE CLUB

THE CLIPPER SHAKSPEARE CLUB has secured the American rights to an absolutely new edition of Shakspeare, just published in London, of which a limited edition will be offered at half price, and on a very attractive plan of sale. Write at once to the Clipper Shakspeare Club for particulars. The American edition is limited to 1000 sets and when 200 copies have been subscribed for the introductory offer will be withdrawn.

THE ROYAL SHAKSPEARE is the most complete, fine art edition of Shakspeare yet published. The lines of each play are numbered. It contains copious notes, and the illustrations, of which there are more than 100, are full-page Water Colors, Rembrandt Photogravures and Xylogravure illustrations in color. The photographs are from the celebrated Intaglio Secret Process, which is unequalled in merit anywhere in the world.

DESCRIPTION. The work is complete in 12 fine large volumes, Royal Octavo size, and is printed on the highest quality of paper, made especially for this edition. The bindings are tooled by hand and are of the best workmanship and material procurable. It is in every sense of the word an edition for people of taste and discrimination.

CUT THIS OUT.

Please send description of the Royal Shakspeare and particulars of your offer of THE NEW YORK CLIPPER Address..... Name.....

Mail the above coupon to-day, and you will receive sample pages, showing the text, specimen illustrations, etc. Only 200 sets are available under this offer.

BLOOD POISON

FACTS of Vital Importance to Every Sufferer of Blood Poison.

FACT ONE—It takes time to tell whether you are permanently cured by a treatment or merely patched up for the present.
FACT TWO—The Cook Remedy Co. is the only company or medical association in existence that has been treating Blood Poison long enough to know that its patients are cured to stay cured.
FACT THREE—The Cook Remedy Co. has many patients who were cured by its magic remedy eighteen years ago who are today sound and well.
FACT FOUR—The Cook Remedy Co. is the largest and the only successful company FACT EIGHT—Good health is the most important thing in the world to any person.
ABOVE EIGHT FACTS ARE ABSOLUTELY UNDENIABLE.
The Cook Remedy Co. solicit the most obstinate cases, and challenge the world for a case they cannot cure. This disease has always baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians. For many years the Cook Remedy Co. have made a specialty of treating this disease, and they have unlimited capital behind their unconditional guaranty.
You can be treated at home for the same price and with the same guaranty. With those who prefer to go to Chicago the Cook Remedy Co. will contract to cure them or

"DUPES"

There are invested in Moving Picture Machines and Films in this country not less than three million dollars, exclusive of the manufacturing plants. The manufacturer, the dealer and the exhibitor are dependent upon the continued popularity of Moving Pictures with the public for the stability of their business.

It is an unquestioned fact that Moving Pictures are today more popular than ever. But audiences are now discriminating. The times are past when any view in motion would satisfy them.

There is danger of killing this lucrative business by sharp practice; the danger that lies in putting before the public pictures that are inferior, uninteresting and photographically beneath criticism.

Every man at all familiar with Moving Pictures as shown in public has seen the kind that looks washed out, indistinct and top-sided; which leaves the eye dissatisfied and the mind irritated. These pictures are known as "Dupes," and are endangering the Moving Picture business.

A "Dupe" is a picture which is copied from an original; the copyist saves the brain work and expense of making an original negative, photographs another manufacturer's product, and places his duplicated print on the market as an original film.

He loses all the delicate shadings, the soft lights and restful photographic quality of the first print.

Many exhibitors who are unknowingly using "Dupes" are dissatisfied with the results obtained, but are ignorant of the reason. The remedy is at hand, and is extremely simple: Buyers and renters of films should ask for a positive guarantee, subject to penalty, that the films bought or rented are originals.

If any reader of this advertisement wishes ocular demonstration, let him call at our Chicago address and see an original as well as a sample "Dupe" of the same film upon the curtain in our dark room. Every man who uses moving pictures owes it to himself and his audiences to use originals only.

It is gratifying to note that since we first called attention to the evil many buyers and some dealers have joined us in our policy of "No Dupes."

We offer selected films of all makes with a guarantee that they are originals. No "Dupes" of any make can be bought at this address, except a few subjects of which the originals cannot be obtained, which are copied by agreement with the European manufacturer, and which we sell as "Dupes."

We do not deal in second hand goods of any description.
